Mr. Douglas at Kenosha.—We learn that when Mr. Douglas reached Kenosha on Saturday evening, there being no democrats present to give him a proper reception, as advertised, the stationmaster sent up a "Wide-Awakes" who came down to the cars with caps and capes, and gave three rousing cheers for Mr. Douglas.

Mr. Douglas being in a boozing condition did not comprehend that the Wide-Awakes cheered him and appeared with torches in the absence of any other organization, at the invitation of democrats, he therefore began abusing them most violently, claiming that he had insulted him at a democratic meeting, etc., and went back into the car as usual, etc. The Wide-Awakes then administered three hearty cheers for "Aunt Sam," which probably did not make him very jolly. We are told by gentlemen present, that Mr. Douglas was so fatigued that he could scarcely preserve his equilibrium.—Free Democrat.

At almost every place where Mr. Douglas has spoken during his tour, from Maine to this state, we hear that he was in no condition to speak. This is asserted by democrats as well as republicans; and where there is a general concurrence that he indulges in habits that disqualify him from appearing before the people, there must be some truth in it. There must be something upon which to found the universal remark that is made about it.

The 14,000 NEGRO VOTERS on the Reserve, who voted the republican ticket, under the decision of Judge Brinkerhoff, helped to swell this "noble majority."—Democrat.

There are no number of negroes on the Western Reserve, and therefore not 1200 voters, having negro blood in their veins, in the twelve counties of which the Western Reserve is composed. Judge Brinkerhoff decided that a person of African descent, who had more white blood than negro, is a voter under the constitution of Ohio. Precisely the same decision had been made, years ago, by democratic judges, under the old constitution. The new constitution contained the same clause, in relation to suffrage, and Judge Brinkerhoff only affirmed the previous decision. That is all there is about it. The statement of the Democrat is, as usual, an untruthful and unfair as possible.

RECEPTION OF CARL SCHURZ.—A public reception will be given to Carl Schurz at Milwaukee, on Wednesday next, upon his return from the east. It is eminently proper that such a testimonial should be awarded to one of our most faithful and effective speakers. We hope there may be a large turn-out from this part of the state.

The New York Herald has seven columns devoted to the reception of the Prince of Wales. The greater portion of its new advertisements have something to say about the Prince of Wales; and after a long editorial on the Prince of Wales, announces that the Prince of Wales' movements will be noted as he goes. A sublime and interesting subject!

Tin mines have been discovered in California, and Col. Fremont and others have organized a company to work them.

Edward Moncres, the English soldier who insultingly threatened the Prince of Wales in New York city, died at Bellevue Hospital of delirium tremens.

Diamonds have recently been found in Australia.

The Next Congress.

Previous to the late state elections the republicans had held their own in all the states in the election of members of congress, and gained one in Missouri, Blair. The Pennsylvania delegation stands, 21 republicans and 4 anti-republicans; Ohio 13 republicans and 8 anti-republicans. We lose two in Ohio, making a net loss of one so far. This we have a moral certainty of making up in the third district in this state. In consequence of the close vote likely to occur in the next congress, it becomes of the utmost importance that the district now represented by Larrabee should be carried. We are gratified to learn that the prospect of electing Judge Sloan is good, and that our friends are earnestly at work.

The whole number of representatives in the next congress, says the Cincinnati Gazette, including Kansas, will be 238; a majority being 120. We shall undoubtedly have a full republican delegation from New England, 29; probably from New York, 28; New Jersey, 3; elected in Pennsylvania, 21; Ohio, 13; Indiana, 7; probably from Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota, 17; Missouri, 2 (including Rollins); Maryland, probably 1; Kansas, 1—total, 122. This is close reckoning, but in any event, we are certain the next house will stand better than the present, which has not a republican majority. The anti-republican forces will be quite as badly divided as ever, and if the supporters of Mr. Lincoln's are not in absolute majority, they will have a decided plurality.

With Kansas admitted, the senate will consist of 68 members. 35 will be required for a majority. In the next congress the republicans will have (including two from Kansas and one, Baker, from Oregon) thirty-one. This will be a powerful minority, and, backed by a republican house and executive, will probably be able to carry through many salutary measures of reform, such as the country so much needs. Only a few months more will be needed, we trust, to make the four other changes required to give us an absolute majority.—One of these we hope to get in New Jersey, (in place of Thompson), another in Indiana, (to succeed Bright), and we do not despair of the balance in the Pacific states, or by the admission of Nebraska.

On the whole, then, the prospect for the next congress, though not all we could wish, is by no means a gloomy one. Mr. Lincoln's administration will have substantial legislative support, during the first half of his term, with the chances in favor of positive majorities in both houses of the next succeeding congress.

COMING TO THE WINNING SIDE.—The World's Washington correspondence of Friday says: "So great are the strides of republicans here, that two hundred men have enrolled themselves at the club room this week. The officers of the association contradict the rumor that their books are closed, and the eleven-hundred folks left out in the cold."

The same correspondent telegraphs: "There is a widely prevalent rumor here to the effect that successful efforts are being made for the withdrawal of both Douglas and Breckinridge from the field, and the concentration of the liberal democratic vote on Bell, or some other independent candidate. Douglas and Breckinridge have been consulted within the last twenty-four hours."

The New York Tribune's Washington correspondent, also, says that a great deal of sensation exists in Washington by reason of the accession to the Lincoln ranks, of a large portion of the rank and file of the late Bell and Everett or American party in Baltimore. This class of working men being disgusted by the course of the dry goods portion of the party in supporting others than an American for mayor, have resolved to go for Mr. Lincoln, and may thus prevent the state of Maryland going for Mr. Bell. This sort of feeling will extend to other southern cities.

In view of the success of the republicans at the presidential election, the Charleston Mercury says that there will be an abolition party at the south of southern men being disgusted by the course of the dry goods portion of the party in supporting others than an American for mayor, have resolved to go for Mr. Lincoln, and may thus prevent the state of Maryland going for Mr. Bell. This sort of feeling will extend to other southern cities.

ASSEMBLY NOMINATION.—Mr. Andrew E. Elmore has received the democratic nomination for the assembly in the Mukwanago district of Waukesha county.

INDIANA LEGISLATURE.—According to the Indianapolis Journal, the Senate will have 28 republican members, and 22 democratic; the House of Representatives, 60 republicans and 40 democrats. This gives a republican majority of 26 on joint ballot, and full control of both branches. The majority for Lane is, so far, 9,882.

The hand organ has the word Gazette seventeen times in this morning's issue. It is evident that there is something out of tune in that concern. It is not as jolly as it should be in these bright autumn days. Cheer up, you poor organ grinder, there is room enough in the world for all of us, and don't discourse such dismal music. When "Old Abe" is elected you shan't be harmed. Don't take on so, about an event that must happen, but bear it as nearly like men as possible. Not much is expected of you, but do as well as you can. All the lies you tell about republicans will do no good now, as Lincoln is certain to be elected. We advise you to be decent, if it is possible, during the remainder of the campaign, and thus retain a little of your future.

GREAT REPUBLICAN MEETING AT RACINE.—We learn from the Journal that there was an immense gathering of the republican masses at Racine on Tuesday. Senator Doolittle and John Wentworth were the principal speakers. There was a torch-light procession of a thousand Wide-Awakes in the evening.

MR. DOUGLAS AT KENOSHA. We learn that when Mr. Douglas reached Kenosha on Saturday evening, there being no democrats present to give him a proper reception, as advertised, the station-master sent up for the Wide-Awakes who came down to the cars, with caps and pegs, and gave three rousing cheers for Mr. Douglas.

Mr. Douglas being in a boisterous condition did not comprehend that the Wide-Awakes cheered him and appeared with torches in the absence of any other organization, at the invitation of democrats, he therefore began abusing them most violently, claiming they had insulted him at a democratic meeting, etc., and went back into the car and was a wet hen. The Wide-Awakes administered their hearty cheers for AVRAHAM LINCOLN, which probably did not make him very jolly. We are told by gentlemen present, that Mr. Douglas was so infuriated that he could scarcely preserve his equilibrium.—Free Democrat.

At almost every place where Mr. Douglas has spoken during his tour, from Maine to this state, we hear that he was in no condition to speak. This is asserted by democrats as well as republicans; and where there is a general concurrence that he indulges in habits that disqualify him from appearing before the people, there must be some truth in it. There must be something upon which to found the universal remark that is made about him.

The 14,000 NEGRO VOTERS on the Reserve, who voted the republican ticket, under the decision of Judge Brinkerhoff, helped to swell this "noble majority."—Democrat.

There are no such number of negroes on the Western Reserve, and therefore not 12,000 voters, having negro blood in their veins, in the twelve counties which the Western Reserve is composed. Judge Brinkerhoff decided that a person of African descent, who had more white blood than negro, is a voter under the constitution of Ohio. Precisely the same decision had been made, years ago, by democratic judges, under the old constitution. The new constitution contained the same clause, in relation to suffrage, and Judge Brinkerhoff only affirmed the previous decision. That is all there is about it. The statement of the Democrat is, as usual, as untruthful and unfair as possible.

RECEPTION OF CARL SCHURZ.—A public reception will be given to Carl Schurz at Milwaukee, on Wednesday next, upon his return from the east. It is eminently proper that such a testimonial should be awarded to one of our most faithful and effective speakers. We hope there may be a large turnout from this part of the state.

The New York Herald has seventeen columns devoted to the reception of the Prince of Wales; and after a long editorial on the Prince of Wales, announces that the Prince of Wales' movements will be noted as he goes. A sublime and interesting subject!

Tin mines have been discovered in California, and Col. Fremont and others have organized a company to work them.

Edward Moncars, the English soldier who insultingly threatened the Prince of Wales in New York city, died at Bellevue Hospital of delirium tremens.

Diamonds have recently been found in Australia.

The Next Congress.

Previous to the late state elections the republicans had held their own in all the states in the election of members of congress, and gained one in Missouri, Blair—

The Pennsylvania delegation stands, 21 republicans and 4 anti-republicans; Indiana 7 republicans and 4 anti-republicans; Ohio 13 republicans and 8 anti-republicans; Wisconsin, 13 republicans and 2 anti-republicans. We lose two in Ohio, making a net loss of one so far. This we have a moral certainty of making up in the third district in this state. In consequence of the close vote likely to occur in the next congress, it becomes of the utmost importance that the district now represented by Larabee should be carried. We are gratified to learn that the prospect of electing Judge Sloan is good, and that our friends are earnestly at work.

The whole number of representatives in the next congress, says the Cincinnati Gazette, including Kansas, will be 238, a majority being 120. We shall undoubtedly have a full republican delegation from New England, 28; probably from New York, 28; New Jersey, 3; elected in Pennsylvania, 21; Ohio, 13; Indiana, 7; probably from Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota, 17; Missouri, 2 (including Rollins); Maryland, probably 1; Kansas, 1—total, 122. This is close reckoning, but in any event, we are certain the next house will stand better than the present, which has not a republican majority. The anti-republican forces will be quite as badly divided as ever, and if the supporters of Mr. Lincoln's are not in absolute majority, they will have a decided plurality.

With Kansas admitted, the senate will consist of 68 members. 33 will be required for a majority. In the next congress the republicans will have (including two from Kansas and one, Baker, from Oregon) thirty-one. This will be a powerful minority, and, backed by a republican house and executive, will probably be able to carry through many salutary measures of reform, such as the country so much needs. Only a few months more will be needed, we trust, to make the four other changes required to give us an absolute majority.—One of these we hope to get in New Jersey, (in place of Thompson), another in Indiana, (to succeed Bright), and we do not despair of the balance in the Pacific states, or by the admission of Nebraska.

On the whole, then, the prospect for the next congress, though not all we could wish, is by no means a gloomy one. Mr. Lincoln's administration will have substantial legislative support, during the first half of his term, with the chances in favor of positive majorities in both houses of the next succeeding congress.

COMING TO THE WINNING SIDE.—The World's Washington correspondence of Friday says: "So great are the strides of republicanism here, that two hundred men have enrolled themselves at the club room this week. The officers of the association contradict the rumor that their books are closed, and the eleven-hour folks left out in the cold."

The same correspondent telegraphs:—"There is a widely prevalent rumor here to the effect that successful efforts are being made for the withdrawal of both Douglas and Breckinridge from the field, and the concentration of the liberal democratic vote on Bell, or some other independent candidate. Douglas and Breckinridge have been consulted within the last twenty-four hours."

The New York Tribune's Washington correspondent, also, says that a great deal of sensation exists in Washington by reason of the accession to the Lincoln ranks, of a large portion of the rank and file of the late Bell and Everett or American party in Baltimore. This class of working men being disgusted by the course of the dry goods portion of the party in supporting one rather than an American for mayor, have resolved to go for Mr. Lincoln, and may thus prevent the state of Maryland going for Mr. Bell. "This sort of feeling will extend to other southern cities."

In view of the success of the republicans at the presidential election, the Charleston Mercury says that there will be an abolition party at the south of southern men. "The contest for slavery," it says, "will no longer be one between the north and the south. It will be in the south, between the people of the south." We should not regret to see the people of the south take measures to get rid of slavery; and if such is to be the effect of our present election, we shall feel greater anxiety to succeed.

ASSEMBLY NOMINATION.—Mr. Andrew E. Elmore has received the democratic nomination for the assembly in the Mukwanago district of Waukesha county.

INDIANA LEGISLATURE.—According to the Indianapolis Journal, the Senate will have 28 republican members, and 22 democratic; the House of Representatives, 60 republicans and 40 democrats. This gives a republican majority of 26 on joint ballot, and full control of both branches. The majority for Lane is, so far, 9,852.

The grand organ has the word Gazette seventeen times in this morning's issue. It is evident that there is something out of tune in that concern. It is not as jolly as it should be in these bright autumn days. Cheer up, you poor organ grinders, there is room enough in the world for all of us, and don't discourse such dismal music. When "Old Abe" is elected you shan't be harmed. Don't take on so, about an event that must happen, but bear it as nearly like men as possible. Not much is expected of you, but do as well as you can. All the lies you tell about republicans will do no good now, as Lincoln is certain to be elected. We advise you to be decent, if it is possible, during the remainder of the campaign, and thus retain a little credit for the future.

GREAT REPUBLICAN MEETING AT RACINE. We learn from the Journal that there was an immense gathering of the republican masses at Racine on Tuesday. Senator Doolittle and John Wentworth were the principal speakers. There was a torchlight procession of a thousand Wide Awakes in the evening.

Fairbanks' Scales!

These Scales should be in the hands of every Person that Buys and Sells by Weight.

EVERY wheat buyer, merchant, miller and manufacturer buys and sells his wheat
By his own Weights.
The Farmer sell his grain by the weight of the party who buys it, and the Buyer, merchant or miller, sell his wheat to that one. The Farmer always buys his wheat by the weight of the party of whom he purchases—one day of this year, and another day of that one.

Every Farmer, should, and every Good farmer sell, have control of his own weights, and use the Bushel Buyer, the Merchant or the Miller.

What wheat buyer, merchant or miller would not sell his by the weight of another? If he should the Farmer would not buy of him. If he should not sell his wheat by the weight of another? If he would not, he would buy none.
